Armadale Academy School Ethos

WHAT NEXT?

All of the information gathered has been discussed at the appropriate meetings within the school and areas identified as being in need of review have been included in Department and School Improvement plans for the forthcoming session.

Pupils have been engaged via PSD classes, House Assemblies, Year Group Assemblies and the Pupil Council to find out more information and pupils will be involved in the process of addressing areas identified as being in need of attention during the next 12 months.

Feedback on progress with these will be published on the website as part of the schools annual review process, delivered via PSD classes and assemblies and discussed with our partner organisations and the Parent Council as necessary.
